

Dallyn Vail Bayles stars in 'America Nine-Eleven' musical

Sarah Harris Daily Herald | Sep 7, 2018

Utah actor and singer Dallyn Vail Bayles will star in the Freedom Festival's "America Nine-Eleven" musical production, opening Friday at American Heritage School.

The play is "a musical tribute to the lives of the men and women who experienced the events of Sept. 11, 2001," according to American Heritage School Advancement Director David Buer.

"We use a theatrical setting, with both original and familiar songs, to tell the story of the heroes of that day, and of the days after,"

Buer said in an email to the Daily Herald. "It's not political, it's really an opportunity to remember, to find unity, and to celebrate first responders, everyday people and triumphs of the human spirit."

Amy Shreeve Keeler and the Debra Bonner Unity Gospel Choir also will perform at the event.

"America Nine-Eleven" will be presented Friday, Saturday and Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., with a matinee Saturday at 2 p.m., at American Heritage School, 736 N. 1100 East, American Fork. Tickets, priced from $15-$25, and additional information are available at american-heritage.org.

Amy Shreeve Keeler, left, and Dallyn Vail Bayles star in the Freedom Festival's musical production, "America Nine-Eleven." Courtesy of David Buer